

ECASBA

2018 EUROPEAN SEMINAR

“Ship Agency 2.0 - disruption or just business as usual?”

Barcelona, 4th/5th June 2018

Monday, 4th June

12.00 p.m.

Lunch, delegate registration, Escola Europea - Intermodal Transport, Moll de Barcelona Nord, Terminal de Drassanes

1.30 p.m.

Welcome: Antonio Belmar da Costa, ECASBA Chairman

1.35 p.m.

Launch of the ECASBA SAIL Education Programme: Antonio Belmar da Costa, ECASBA Chairman, Capt. Jakov Karmelić, FONASBA Vice President for Education

2.00 p.m.

“Customs Policy and Ship Agency 2.0, a clash of cultures or constructive cooperation?": Presentations and a panel discussion with speakers: Nerea Rodríguez Entremozaga, Deputy Director General of Spanish Customs and German de Melo Ponce, Team Leader DG-TAXUD. Moderator Vito Totorizzo, FEDERAGENTI.

2.45 p.m.

“Ship Reporting 2.0, getting it right this time?" A look ahead to the revised Reporting Formalities Directive. Presentation by Jonathan C. Williams FICS, ECASBA General Manager.

3.15 p.m.

Coffee Break, Networking

3.45 p.m.

“Shipping 2.0, the new technologies and their impact on agents": A series of presentations on autonomous ships, blockchain technology, automated terminals and other developments on the role of the ship agent. Followed by a discussion panel. Speakers to be confirmed. Moderator Dr. Alexander Geisler, ZVDS Germany

5.00 p.m.

Summing up, comments from the floor, Antonio Belmar da Costa, ECASBA Chairman

5.30 p.m.

End of session, return to the hotel. Transport provided.

8.00 p.m.

Delegates, speakers and guests meet for transfer to the seminar dinner

Tuesday, 5th June

9.00 a.m.

Delegate registration, Sala Príncipe, SIL Barcelona 2018, Fira de Barcelona, Montjuïc Convention Center, Plaça d'Espanya

9.30 a.m.

Formal Launch of ASECOB, Julio Carrasco Valdés, President of ASECOB.

9.45 a.m.

“Cruise 2.0, new possibilities for the industry?": A panel discussion on future developments in the cruise sector in the Mediterranean. Speakers: Santiago Garcia Milá, Deputy Executive Director, the Port of Barcelona, Alfredo Serrano, National Director for Spain, the Cruise Line Industry Association. Moderator to be confirmed.

10.45 a.m.

Coffee Break, Networking

11.15 a.m.

“Multimodality 2.0, a plan for the future.": A presentation by Eduard Rodés, Director of the Escola Europea-Intermodal Transport, followed by a panel discussion. Speakers Jordi Truis, President, the Barcelona Shipping Agents' Association, Ana Arévalo, Commercial Manager, the Port of Barcelona. Moderator to be confirmed.

12.15 p.m.

Conclusions and Summing Up. Antonio Belmar da Costa, ECASBA Chairman

12.30 p.m.

Seminar Ends.