

INTRODUCTION:

FONASBA - the Federation of National Associations of Ship Brokers and Agents established the Young Ship Agent or Shipbroker Award since 2015.

This prestigious award is conferred to the author of the best original paper submitted from a young professional [under 40] within the framework and deadlines indicated below.

FONASBA invites submissions for the 2026 YABA - FONASBA YOUNG SHIP AGENT OR SHIPBROKER OF THE YEAR AWARD for original unpublished papers addressing the challenges and opportunities within the professions of Shipbrokers and Ship Agents.

PURPOSE OF THE FONASBA AWARD:

The aim of the Award is to develop professionalism among young people in ship agency and shipbroking and to encourage them to be actively engaged in the industry. A further objective of the Award is to enhance FONASBA's academic resources.

AUTHOR ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

The author shall be 40 years of age or under at the time of submission of the paper to the Review Committee. Entries are welcome from all eligible individuals employed by a company that is a member of a FONASBA Full, or Candidate Member association, or by an Associate or Club Member; and from external authors, who are employed elsewhere [companies that are not part of the FONASBA network].

PAPER CRITERIA:

Submissions should present a clear, well-structured analysis of the chosen subject, grounded in the professional perspective and practical experience of a ship agent and/or shipbroker.

For this year's edition of the award, candidates are invited to focus their submissions on one of the following three thematic areas:

1. The Ship Agent Today: A Profession at the Crossroads

How roles, expectations and responsibilities are changing across ship types, ports and jurisdictions

2. Operating Under Pressure: Shipping Professionals in an Unsettled World

What geopolitics, sanctions and regulatory uncertainty mean for agents and brokers on the ground

3. Platforms, Power and Practice: Who Shapes the Future of Shipbroking and Ship Agency?

Examining the impact of digital tools, intermediaries and new market structures

The paper should be written in such a way as to be understood by both professionals in the field as well as general (non-maritime) readers.

SUBMISSION CRITERIA:

To ensure consistently high standards, the subject of the paper will be agreed between the author and the Review Committee prior to work starting.

In a first instance, the author will be invited to submit the title and a brief summary [between 350 and 500 words] outlining the scope and contents of the work to the Committee for review and comment.

The Review Committee may suggest such changes to the proposal as it feels appropriate to ensure the finished work meets the required standards.

Once the scope of work has been agreed upon, the formal submission will consist of a written paper, including illustrations where appropriate, with a word count of no less than 4,000 and no more than 5,000 words, excluding the title, index, footnotes, and bibliography.

The paper, submitted in English, shall be an original work and shall not have been published in print or electronic media prior to being submitted for the Award. The editorial guidelines regarding the paper layout, visual content management, etc., will be circulated in due course.

The timetable for entering a paper to the Award scheme is provided overleaf.

OWNERSHIP/PUBLICATION OF ALL PAPERS:

Copyright of the paper remains with the author. However, by entering for the Award, the author accepts full responsibility for the content, including any copyright and plagiarism issues. Authors also agree agrees that their work may be made available to the membership and the public via the FONASBA website, publications, and other communication media.

REVIEW PROCESS:

All aspects of the review process and selection of the winner of the Award will be undertaken by a Review Committee comprised of the following:

- A senior member of FONASBA as Chair, nominated by the Executive Committee
- The Chair for the Education and Quality Committee
- And any further individuals nominated by the Chair of the Review Committee

The Review Committee will be supported by the FONASBA Secretariat, which will administer all aspects of the Award scheme, including all communication with the authors.
